

Report on Sawan Srijan Mahotsav

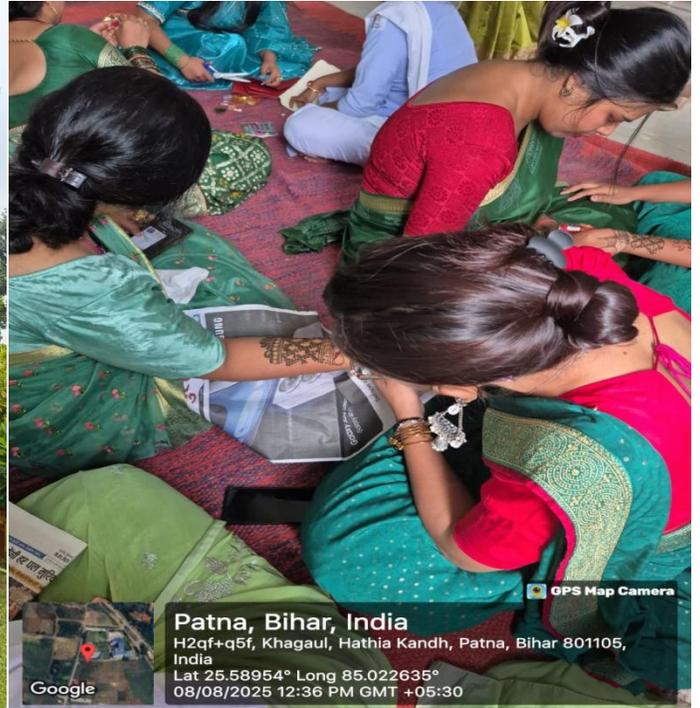

Mundeshwari College for Teacher Education, Patna, celebrated the vibrant “Sawan Srijan Mahotsav” with great enthusiasm and cultural spirit. The event, held on 08th of August 2025 in the college campus, aimed to promote creativity, tradition, and togetherness among students. Various activities and competitions were organized to mark the festive occasion.

The highlight of the celebration was the Rakhi Making Competition, where participants showcased their artistic skills by crafting beautiful and unique rakhis, blending traditional designs with innovative ideas. Equally engaging was the Mehndi Competition, where intricate henna patterns adorned the hands of participants, reflecting the elegance of Indian art. Adding to the festive atmosphere, food stalls set up by students served a variety of delicious traditional delicacies, offering everyone a taste of seasonal flavors. The stalls became a hub of interaction, laughter, and enjoyment, fostering a sense of community.

The event not only brought out the hidden talents of students but also strengthened the bond among them through shared cultural experiences. The Principal appreciated the efforts of all participants and cultural committee, encouraging them to keep such traditions alive. The “Sawan Srijan Mahotsav” concluded with joy, music, and a renewed spirit of unity and festivity on campus.

Sonika Singh.
Principal
Mundeshwari College for Teacher Education
Sarani, Patna-801105

Sonita Singh.
Principal
Mundeshwari College for Teacher Education
Sarari, Patna-801105